Bondholders and their deputies will be supplied with tickets of admission at the office of the Second Auditor.

Things are getting along brightly. The great deluge that has swept over the Radicals has afforded infinite delight to the whole Union, and is doing wonders in restoring confidence and invigorating hope.

" Now is the winter of our discontent

The lotos eaters of the Federal offices are in much trouble. Pains in the bowels, by comparison, would be pleasure to them. They would love above all things to stay where they are. Why should a wayward public opinion break up so much happiness?

We have received the first No. of the Virginische Zeitung, published by B. HASSEL, at $2.50 per annum. It is made up, we believe, from the Daily Anzeiger.

For the new term the Democrats have secured 16, the Republicans 8, and 1 (Booth of California) is Independent. The Democrats have also secured a senator in Louisiana for the term ending in 1879. With these changes, the Senate, in the Forty-fourth Congress, should politically divide as tollows: Republicans, 41; Democrats, 32; Independent, 1.

THE PRESIDENT AND COLONEL MOSBY .- A Washington correspondent of the New York Herald has the following:

"Colonel Mosby met the President for th first time Friday since the election. Both being in favor of a third term, they sat down and discussed matters for an hour. The congressional candidate in Mosby's district, Mr. Barbour, who was to vindicate the third-term policy, was beaten by General Hunton, a Democratic member of the present Congress, who said the people of Virginia were unconditionally opposed to a third term. But this did not discourage the President nor his Virginia visitor. Both agreed that Cæsarism had nothing to do with the result, and bis Excellency was more convinced than ever of the policy of keeping silent. There are those who think and say in the President's presence that his friendship for Mosby does not inspire respect among the soldier element of the Union army. The President replies by appointing additional friends of Mosby to office, of which fact the Colonel, Friday, had substantial evidence. More than that, the President intends visiting Colonel Mosby at his home, in Warrenton, in a few days. This shows how much President Grant cares for public opinion and the voice of the press."

THE NEW SPEAKERSHIP .- Washington, November 8.-Crude speculations as to the organization of the next House of Representatives are now appearing in various quarters. All such speculations are entirely worthless at this time. In this day, when new issues, in and out of parties, spring up almost in day or a night, when party combinations are formed almost in a moment, upsetting the most deliberate and the most matured calcu lations, it is useless to attempt to prognosti cate twelve months and more in advance how the next House will be organized. There will be in the next House some new members of the majority whose abilities and whose personal and party characteristics wil be apt to commend them as a better type of pure and elevated Democracy than any of the old members whose names have been alluded to in connection with the speakership. Seve ral leading members in both sections of the country have been heard from on this subject, and they say that so far as they have knowledge there has been no interchange of views on the organization of the next House nor do they think that any conference on the subject is necessary or proper for months to

REPUBLICAN PARTY CONFERENCE-A SCOLD-ING IN VIEW POR THE PRESIDENT .- Washington, November 8 - From letters received here from leading Republican congressmen it is learned that it is in contemplation to have a party conference, as near as possible, about the time of the meeting of Congress. The purpose of the conference will be to lay down a definite line of policy to be pursued during the coming session. The President, in his views as set forth in these dispatches. lays the blame of the recept defeats on Congress, while the Republicans in that body ascribe the disasters to bis action. They say that the President has made his administration too much personal and too little party. It is proposed at the approaching conference to have a plain talk with the Executive. Some of the Republican members argue that they would prefer that he should act with the opposition than that he should continue to claim fellowship with the Republican party and refuse to listen to the advice of its most trusted leaders. Among other things most trusted leaders. Among other things which they think absolutely necessary for the President to do is to remove the inchicient and obnovious office-holders such as Peak and obnovious office-holders such as Peak and obnovious office-holders. and obnoxious office-holders, such as Packard and Casey and the like, and replace them FOR RENT, surround himself with men of a higher calibre. What they want, and what they say they intend shall be laid down, is that if the President will not act with Congress some of the same medicine which was applied to Andrew Johnson shall be used in his case, They will hardly be silly enough, however, to try the i ppeachment dodge. - Baltimore

It is asserted very confidently that the Pre sident will take ground in his forthcoming aupual message against the passage of the civil-rights bill, but the story is not fully credited by Republican congressmen now here.- Washington telegram -- New York Post.

LOOKING UP .- Advices from New Orleans represent that business, which has for nearly two years been almost at a stand-still, is rapidly reviving, in consequence of the Conservative successes. The day after the election the largest sale of cotton took place for the season .- Washington telegram.
